PLAN SUMMARY
These day-and-a-half plans work perfectly if you're arriving in Anaheim late in the morning of your first vacation day, and can't wait to start touring. They also work great for families who want to sleep in one morning after spending a full day in the Disneyland the day before. Steps include live entertainment like Mickey and the Magical Map show, plus classic attractions, such as Space Mountain, Splash Mountain and Haunted Mansion. The first day ends with the Disneyland Forever fireworks spectacular, while the second ends with Fantasmic.
